

Sea and Sage Audubon Society
FIELD TRIP RELEASE FORM

Trip Name: _____

Date: _____

Participant's Name (please print): _____

Understanding of Risks: The participants listed below understand that participating in a Sea & Sage Audubon Society field trip carries with it various risks. Some of the risks — but not all of them — include:

- Risk of personal injury or death, and damage to, or loss or theft of property, traveling to and from, and participating in, the trip, whether from accidents, criminal activity, exertion, animals, terrain, location, or any other cause.
- Absence of rescue and medical facilities and expertise.
- Negligence of Sea & Sage, its trip leaders, and anyone else acting on its behalf in arranging, planning, and conducting the trip.

Waiver and Release. In consideration for being allowed to participate in these trips, the participants voluntarily assume all risks associated with participating in these trips — from any cause whatsoever — even if caused by the negligence or other misconduct of Sea & Sage, its trip leaders, anyone else acting on behalf of Sea & Sage, any other participant on the trip, or any third parties or other causes. Further, the participants release Sea & Sage, its trip leaders, and all others acting on its behalf, from any claim for damages of any kind, whether injury, death, or damage to, or loss or theft of, property caused by, or resulting from participating in this trip, whether caused by the negligence of Sea & Sage, its trip leaders, or anyone else acting on its behalf.

The participant confirms that he or she has carefully read this document and fully understands that it is a release of liability. The participant confirms that he or she is waiving any right he or she may have to bring a legal action to assert a claim against Sea & Sage, its trip leaders, and anyone else acting on behalf of Sea and Sage, whether based on their negligence or any other theory.

Ocean Institute Of Dana Point ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISK AND WAIVER FOR ALL PARTICIPANTS

Copy single-sided only — Do not staple form

Welcome to the Ocean Institute! We want you and everyone to have a memorable and safe experience.

The Ocean Institute's environment vessels facilities and activities are unique and different from your usual surroundings and activities. There are many inherent risks, dangers, and hazards and everyone must exercise caution at all times in order to avoid or minimize the risk of damage, injury, and death.

Examples of these risks, dangers, and hazards include, without limitation (a) walking and standing surfaces that may be wet, slippery, moving, irregular, unstable and rough; (b) open areas such as hatches into which someone could fall, (c) low or irregular lighting or no light at all, (d) objects and equipment that could fall on someone, (e) low ceilings, (f) ropes, chains, and other items that could strike or entangle someone, (g) extreme and variable physical weather, and ocean conditions, including darkness, sun glare, storms, and hot and cold temperatures, (h) vessels, docks, buildings, ladders, and stairs from which someone could fall, (i) vessels and docks that could pitch, roll, capsize, flood, collide, and sink, (j) gaps between a vessel and a dock that could open or close suddenly and unpredictably, (k) possible encounters with wildlife and plants and (l) unavailability of medical attention and treatment.

If you attend any Ocean Institute activities, then you must exercise caution at all time to protect yourself and others from these risks, dangers, and hazards. If children or other persons under your care attend any Ocean Institute activities, then discuss these risks, dangers, and hazards with them as they too must exercise caution at all times.
