

Trip to Yukon and Alaska

Summer 2011

CAMPGROUNDS

Part VII

Our overnight stays ranged from expensive RV "resorts" to roadside pullouts, but we mainly sought out government campgrounds--provincial, territorial and state parks, US Forest Service campgrounds, etc. Many times we took the only place there was. Listings used included the AAA Camping Guides, Trailer Life Guide, and The Milepost. However, my favorite was the book Traveler's Guide to Alaskan Camping--Alaska and Yukon Camping with RV or Tent, 5th ed., by Mike and Terri Church (Rolling Homes Press 2011). Usually it painted an accurate picture of what the place was going to be like. Only once did it recommend a place that turned out to be a mess.

Below is a list of all the places we stayed. There is more about some of them in the text of the diary.
