

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISK AND WAIVER FOR ALL PARTICIPANTS

Welcome to the Ocean Institute! We want you and everyone to have a memorable and safe experience.

The Ocean Institute’s environment vessels facilities and activities are unique and different from your usual surroundings and activities. There are many inherent risks, dangers, and hazards and everyone must exercise caution at all times in order to avoid or minimize the risk of damage, injury, and death.

Examples of these risks, dangers, and hazards include, without limitation (a) walking and standing surfaces that may be wet, slippery, moving, irregular, unstable and rough; (b) open areas such as hatches into which someone could fall, (c) low or irregular lighting or no light at all, (d) objects and equipment that could fall on someone, (e) low ceilings, (f) ropes, chains, and other items that could strike or entangle someone, (g) extreme and variable physical weather, and ocean conditions, including darkness, sun glare, storms, and hot and cold temperatures, (h) vessels, docks, buildings, ladders, and stairs from which someone could fall, (i) vessels and docks that could pitch, roll, capsize, flood, collide, and sink, (j) gaps between a vessel and a dock that could open or close suddenly and unpredictably, (k) possible encounters with wildlife and plants and (l) unavailability of medical attention and treatment.

If you attend any Ocean Institute activities, then you must exercise caution at all time to protect yourself and others from these risks, dangers, and hazards. If children or other persons under your care attend any Ocean Institute activities, then discuss these risks, dangers, and hazards with them as they too must exercise caution at all times.
